EXPERIMENTS IN MASS APPEAL

Dear Dead Days

Home
The violence of your name
Still soothes me all the same
With echoes of my past
Safe surroundings
Meant to last

Everybody got an explanation
For a world that has lost sensation
Faces hiding feelings we forgot to feel

Welcome to the family
Alone now you belong to me
Your life will be my property
I'll redefine reality

Dear Dead Days
Long to find you
And remind you all those yesterdays
That define you
We're the same in many ways

Safe and sound,
Inside you, I'll hide you from them
The real, deride you, let me tie you in

Everybody got a desperation
For the girl in the situation
Headlines hiding feelings we forgot to feel

Welcome to the family
Alone now you belong to me
Your life will be my property
I'll redefine your sanity

This life I have - I give to you
These thoughts I have - they're all for you
These things you say - I know they're true
There's no-one else - No-one but you

Now, outside
Feel like, real life
My sky eyes wide
Too wired to cry
You run
You hide
You taste
Suicide
Some child
Profiled
Beguiled
Defiled
Reviled

Faling Down

Life, it all became too much
It's easier to run
An early warning sign
Take arms and charge the line

Four reasons, I told you lies
Four reasons, why we won't touch eyes
Four reasons, unsatisfied
Four reasons, always there inside

I feel I'm falling down

There's nothing left here to say now
Falling down
Let's put our secrets away now
Falling down
Stop getting hope in the way now
Falling down
We'll lose it all any day now
Falling down
No meaning left in the sound now
Falling down
I'm giving back what I found now
Falling down
I'm heading back to the ground now
Falling down
Not getting up till I break down

Love, I cut a lonely soul
On shards of broken hearts
Outlines of those I lost
Take time and count the cost

Four reasons, I told you lies
Four reasons, why we won't touch eyes
Four reasons, left me dead inside

I feel I'm falling down

Time will justify

Like birds must fall to fly
